

QUESTIONS MAY BE ON BALLOT

Two referendum questions are expected to appear on the ballot of March 6th, at the annual Town election, as the result of legislative hearings in Boston this week.

One question deals with Civil Service for Town Employees, and the other proposes to reduce the powers of the Town Manager by amending the Town Charter.

Representative Fred Cain said, Wednesday, that he believed both bills would be enacted by the Legislature in time to have them included on the ballot, and that the law in this respect was that if there were seven days after they were passed by the legislature, and before the election, the questions had to appear on the ballot.

Civil Service

Representative Cain opened the hearing on the Civil Service proposal, Monday, and introduced Atty Joseph F. Courtney who appeared for the Town Employee Association.

Courtney explained the scope of the proposed act to the committee. He directed the attention of the committee to the fact that the bill was broadly written, so as to include all town employees and department heads, with a few named exceptions, such as the Town Manager and the Town Counsel.

In reviewing the background to the civil service proposal, Courtney stated that last year the Board of Selectmen and Finance Committee had objected to a civil service proposal which did not include all town employees.

Attorney Courtney stated that the sweeping language of the bill was intended to provide a basis for discussion between the Town Employees as a group, and the Selectmen. He noted that no discussions had taken place, and indicated that the Town Employees Association would agree to a revised version which would specifically name the positions and job groups to be included under Civil Service.

Courtney offered to assist the legislative committee in preparing the revision which would conform to the traditional pattern for civil service legislation.

Courtney submitted photostatic copies of a letter objecting to Civil Service which was sent to the Wilmington voters last year by the Selectmen, Finance Committee and Town Manager.

Referring sardonically to the 'extraordinary' statements contained in the letter, he read aloud several sections -- including one paragraph which asserted that Civil Service would prevent the Town from using public welfare recipients as town employees.

Courtney suggested that the members of the committee might wish to retain the photostats as 'a memento of a unique philosophy of public service'.

Thomas McGuinness, Vice President of the Town Employees Association spoke briefly to affirm that the employees of Wilmington strongly desired the protection and job security afforded by Civil Service.

The third person to speak in favor was Selectman Lloyd Bender, the only Wilmington Selectman to attend the hearing.

Bender told the committee that last year the Board of Selectmen had promised the town employees that they would develop a procedure for protecting employees against arbitrary firing, and other personal abuses.

Bender stated that this was his official motion as a newly elected member of the Board. He told the committee that there had been adequate time for the Selectmen and the Town Manager to establish personnel policies which would grant reasonable protection and job security for Town Employees.

Selectman Bender scored the indifference with which this problem was treated by the Selectmen and the Town Manager.

He noted that little was produced in nearly a year, to solve the problem.

A 'draft statement' was submitted (Page Two)

Ballou trailed Suspects Five Miles

Officer Daniel H Ballou of the Wilmington Police Department, Tuesday night, trailed three suspected bandits five miles, before taking part in their capture in Tewksbury, at 11:30 pm.

Charged with Kidnapping and Armed Robbery, the three youths entered a plea of innocent in Woburn District Court, yesterday morning, and were held in $10,000 bail on each count, with the case being continued for two weeks.

The continuance was granted by Justice Francis Cullen in order to allow the youths to get attorneys, or to determine if the court should appoint a defense attorney if the youths are indigent.

Charged with the double crimes are two brothers, Walter and James Downing of Malden, and Bernard Dean of Everett. They were remanded to Cambridge jail, pending bail.

Jim Miceli has certainly been one of the most active candidates, thus far, in the race for Wilmington's Board of Selectmen.

His campaign was kicked off at a reception held at Rocco's Restaurant some weeks ago.

Since that time, Jim has given his views on Wilmington's town government at various coffee hours held throughout the town.

Last Sunday, visitors to Wilmington's Town Dump were greeted enthusiastically with coffee and donuts by Jim and his committee.

It appears that there is no place to hide from Jim these days.

Ballot Questions

COURTNEY SPEAKING ON CIVIL SERVICE: Two of the three figures behind him are ex-Senator Fred McDermott, and Town Counsel Philip Buzzell.

ted by the Town Manager in October, Bender said, which would have no binding effect on the Town Manager. He said that nothing further had been done since October.

Under the circumstances, Bender told the Committee, 'the Town Employees have no other recourse than to go to the voters for help'

Buzzell

The sole spokesman in opposition to Civil Service was Town Counsel Philip B. Buzzell, who apparently represented the Board of Selectmen.

He told the committee that Civil Service was contrary to the Town Manager form of government which had brought sound business practices to the administration of Town affairs.

Mr. Buzzell described the legislation as a 'bad bill' and stressed the cumbersome and difficult procedures for removing Town employees under Civil Service. He stated that any private business which tried to operate under Civil Service would quickly go into bankruptcy.

The State Director of Civil Service objected to the bill because it did not include the library employees or the Northeastern Co-op students who assist the Town Engineer.

Mr. Finnegan said that the bill should specifically designate the positions to be included in Civil Service. (Ed. Note: The State Library Association and Civil Service are currently engaged in a running debate as to whether librarians should be subject to Civil Service, as opposed to the tenure system available to school teachers.)

Town Manager Hearing

Tuesday's hearing, before the Committee on Towns, was much better attended. There were 14 Wilmington residents present, and an old acquaintance, Attorney Charles H. McGlue, who took part in the 1959 discussions of the Town Manager Plan, in Wilmington.

The Wilmington hearing started at 11:22 am with Representative Cain presenting arguments in favor of changing the wording of the Town Charter.

Mr. Cain made it clear that he was not the person who had put in the second paragraph of the proposed legislation, which said that the bill should become law, on passage. (Later, in talking with Town Counsel Philip Buzzell, who called the bill 'poorly written', Chairman Quinn of the committee said that Mr. Cain had nothing to do with the drafting of the bill - the words - and that this had been done by the Legal Department, and that frequently things are left out. Ed)

Cain's statements was to quote from several newspapers, in which he showed that the idea of limiting the powers of the Town Manager had originated with Selectman John Brooks and Charles Black. He quoted the same thing from official records of the Selectmen's meetings.

McGlue

Cain was followed by Attorney McGlue, of Boston, former State Chairman of the Democratic Party during the term of office of Governor James Michael Curley.

Mr. McGlue, who has a long history of opposing the Town Manager form of government throughout the state, told the Committee that in towns where the Town Manager government prevails there is a noticeable lack of voter interest. 11 towns have the plan, he said. In Norwood, in the last election, there was a voter turnout of 19%. In Mansfield the voter turnout was 27%.

McGlue thought a better form was the Executive Secretary, such as in Brookline.

Representative Morse of Wareham asked 'Why don't you dispose of the Town Manager?'

That's what I suggested, McGlue answered.

LaRivee

Rene J. LaRivee appeared in a dual role. As the Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, he said, he was opposed to the legislation, and he read the Selectmen's resolution on the subject.

The Chairman, Senator Quinn, was puzzled. He was supposed to be hearing only people who were in favor of the bill.

He asked LaRivee if he was in favor, or against.

Personally, LaRivee told Quinn, I am in favor.

Quinn smiled.

LaRivee then read a section of the 1959 Town Report, in which the Selectmen voiced some criticisms of the Town Manager plan.

Quinn asked LaRivee if he liked the Town Manager form of government. LaRivee said he did, but that the people should have some say.

Elfman

Atty David Elfman was next. He contrasted the Selectman form of government, which he termed 'democratic' to the Town Manager form, which he termed a 'dictatorship'. During his discussion he brought in a reference to Adolf Schnickelgruber, also known as Adolf Hitler.

Wilmington was just a Stepping Stone for Town Managers, Elfman told the committee.

Morse wanted to know why the Selectmen did not fire the Town Manager. Elfman said that there was always a three to two vote, that the Selectmen never agreed, and that there was a lot of bickering.

The Town Manager, he said, can fire the Tax Collector, the Treasurer, the Collector. He can wipe out the whole town hall, with no chance to appeal.

He said that Selectman LaRivee was heart broken, when the Principal Assessor was fired, to think that the assessor could not get a hearing.

The Selectmen's only function Elfman said, was to hire the Town Manager.

Bob Evans

Bob Evans introduced himself as a chicken farmer, and said that the town had been remarkably lucky in its town managers.

He reviewed briefly the work of Cushing and Courtney, who, he said was a specialist in zoning and planning. Evans thought that Wilmington had progressed far, in the past ten years.

Referring to the present Town Manager, Evans said that he was the only Town Manager of Wilmington who ever really studied the Town Charter. The Town Manager could read it backwards, Evans said.

No Town Manager had ever abused the charter, until this year, Evans said. The Town Manager had fired the Principal Assessor, who had been invaluable, and had brought three industries to town. The assessor had been fired with out a hearing, and no one could find out why.

Evans spoke very caustically about the present assessments. He said they had increased 25 times, in some cases.

He was highly in favor of the Town Manager plan, but felt that

UNIQUE WORK AT SEACRAFT

BOB LEFAVOUR: With some of the special tools he uses to work on skis.

Seacraft Industries, now in business for nine years in Wilmington, behind the Church Street Hardware has expanded into a full time sporting goods store, for hockey, basketball, skating and the sale of skis.

They have added to their service of underwater and Scuba repairs by putting in a fully equipped shop for ski repair - the only one, it is believed, in Middlesex County.

The tools and equipment that Willis and Bob Lefavour use for Scuba equipment, with some special tools in addition, enable the two brothers to give, for instance, the exact attention to skis that is deserved. They have every tool that is necessary for the fine adjustment of skis, ready for use. The boys are proud of it, too.

Forty at Planning Board Hearing

Planning Board chairman James Banda, last night told an audience of about forty persons, in the High School, that circumstances were unchanged from last year, with reference to Garden Type Apartments, and proposed rezoning for industry on Kilmarnock Road.

There were no adequate building laws a year ago, Banda said, and there are none now. The sewerage picture is unchanged.

Quite a bit of time was spent in discussing a proposed change at the corner of Woburn and Lowell Streets, where the old Gowing Swain house stands. An automobile agency is proposed at this site. Atty Roland Wood appeared to further the proposal.

Mrs. Carol Frost of Lowell St. was one who spoke in opposition. She pointed out that the area had previously been proposed for a gas station, and it had been turned down. Mrs. Frost reminded the board that there had been a proposal to widen Lowell Street, a proposal which she now believed was non-existent.

There was nothing in any report of which she knew, regarding the disposition of the Gowing-Swain house.

Mrs. Frost agreed that progress was necessary, and suggested that the town proceed in an area which was ready for it.

Mrs. George Simmons of Strout Avenue commented that Lowell Street was a gas station area, and pointed out that it was an approach to the Town. She was most concerned about Perry Street, a 'paper' street which connects Woburn Street and Strout Avenue, and was afraid that traffic, in the future, might be using Strout Avenue for a 'short cut'.

Mrs. Jeanne Gifford spoke to say that the townspeople had already decided the character of the area, in zoning three of the four corners for business and industry. Mrs. Madeline McKie, President of the League of Women Voters, read a prepared statement, in favor of Master Planning, and opposed to 'arbitrary zoning changes'.

Amendments in zoning districts, she said, are detrimental to the town if done in a haphazard manner. She urged disapproval of the proposed zoning change.

Mrs. Simmons asked if there is a Tax Table, for assessing Garden Apartment land. There was no answer to her question.

Robert Leahy of Woburn Street asked if the Town Counsel had been consulted as to whether a change of zoning is allowed to a non-existent type of zoning. He was told by Chairman Banda that the answer was 'no'.

The meeting ended shortly after 10 pm at which time Banda said that the Planning Board hoped to reach a decision within a week.

Vinnie Coyne's plans for his new Garage

Vinnie Coyne, of Wilton Drive, one of the top automobile salesmen in New England, and three times the top Ford Salesman in the United States, is looking forward to the Grand Opening of his new place of business, in South Tewksbury, across from the Anchor Restaurant.

Coyne has bought 7 1/2 acres of land, and is building a garage, fifty by sixty feet, which will have a showroom, and a service area for four cars. It should be finished in a couple of weeks.

Coyne, now an automobile dealer in his own right, has a concept in car sales which is new to New England. He is confident that it will be well accepted.

He will sell his cars, new or second hand, with an unconditional guarantee. That's the reason for the repair area, in the new garage. It is not to be a place where outside repairs will be serviced but rather is to be used exclusively for the servicing of cars sold by him. His customers will be able to bring their cars back to him, in case anything goes wrong, and get the kind of service they should have, from that guarantee.

The 29 year old auto dealer, a top athlete in Wilmington and Tewksbury for nearly 20 years past, is confident that the new approach in the business is the coming idea in car sales, and one that will keep his customers happy.

He has, as his associates in the new business, James McCabe and Bernie Doherty, both experienced in car sales and service.

LWV to sponsor Town Meeting Supper

The Voters Service Committee of the LWV is making arrangements for a Town Meeting Supper on March 13th, at the High School Cafeteria. The Supper, last year, was received with such enthusiasm and success that this non-profit service will be offered again to Wilmington voters.

The menu will feature: Oven fried Chicken, Potatoes, Vegetable Salad, Desert and Coffee. The Girl Scouts will assist in serving.

Tickets, at $1.25 may be obtained from any League member or by phoning the Chairman, Mrs. Alanson Platt, 658-3445. Saturday, Election Day at the polls, will be the last day of ticket purchases, provided that tickets are still available at that time.

League Policy

As the local political activity gains momentum, the Wilmington League of Women Voters wishes to reaffirm its adamant non-partisan policy.

To encourage active, informal participation in government - local state and national is a purpose of the League. The League never opposes or supports a candidate; it takes action only on policies and issues which have been previously studied and discussed, and only after the decision of the membership has been recorded.

Individuals serving on the Board of Directors of the LWV must refrain from engaging in any partisan political activity during their term on the Board.

A committee, which has studied for several years the Structure of Government (State), will conduct units discussing at least 5 areas in which changes might be indicated. These will be held on Feb. 15th, at 8 pm at the home of Mrs. Henry Lasman on Wildwood Street, and Feb. 18th, 8 pm, at the home of Mrs. Walter Dinteman 92 Woburn Street.

A Legislators Valentine Party will be held on Feb. 15th from 10 am to 12:30 pm at 3 Joy Street, (Column Four)

VINNIE AND FRIENDS: In front of his new garage, which he will be opening in a couple of weeks.

LETTER

Dear Larz,

I write in reference to the statement in you paper of Feb. 4th about my not being in favor of Civil Service. I am not opposed to Civil Service as such, but knowing the Town as I know it, I fail to see why the Departments want or need it.

To my knowledge, there has been no discrimination and no one is in danger of losing his or her job or position, as the case may be. At this time, every employee is financially better off than he was last year. They have better equipment with which to work and no worker should worry about security so long as they give the Town an honest days work, which I am sure they all do.

As they all know, I am not against any Town employee; I am only concerned for them. I have over the years tried to help every one who has come to me for help or advice and there have been many of them.

By agitating for Civil Service, I feel that the employees are doing themselves a disservice, and I wonder if they have seriously thought about Veteran's Preference, which at times can hurt someone in a promotional exam.

Civil Service has its disadvantages as well as its advantages. I just want to let everyone know this is the way I feel.

Sincerely yours,
 Wavie M. Drew

Middlesex Bank Stockholders Meeting

Stockholders at the annual meeting of the Middlesex County National Bank held at the bank's main office in Everett on Feb. 9th, heard Joseph P. Healey, President, report record high figures in all phases of activity for the year 1964.

Total resources of $127,328,000 up 11% from 1963, were the highest in the bank's history while deposits of $108,609,000 represented a new high, an increase of 9%.

Net earnings after taxes of $1,169,200 showed an increase of 15.2%. Dividends paid to stockholders totalled $2.40 per share.

New peaks in lending activity to industry, business, individuals and state and local governments, included an all time year end high of $27,641,000 in commercial loans, $16,208,000 in installment lending and $19,032,000 in mortgages.

All present officers were re-elected as were the members of the Board of Directors and Boards of Managers. Newly elected to the Board of Directors was Walter C. Wilson Jr., of Tewksbury. He is a member of the Board of Managers of the Appleton-Billerica offices of the Middlesex County National Bank and active in greater Lowell civic and community affairs.

Commenting on the outlook for 1965, Mr. Healey said, 'Banking today is extremely competitive. Its schedule of services is constantly expanding; its methods of doing business are more complex, and greater versatility is demanded. Our organization faces this challenge with confidence and we will respond to the demands of the exciting future'.

QUESTIONS ON BALLOT

Town Manager's needed a check rein, and in Wilmington the Selectmen say they cannot check the Town Manager.

Every company needs a good executive, Evans said.

Philip Buzzell

There was a short recess, after which Town Counsel Philip Buzzell was the first to speak in opposition to the bill.

Mr Buzzell spoke against it on the basis that the Town Manager form of government had done a lot for the town.

Representative Morse asked who appointed the Town Counsel - the Town Manager or the Selectmen.

Buzzell said that when he was preparing the charter he made certain that the Town Counsel and the Town Accountant were to be appointed by the Selectmen.

Roland Wood

Attorney Roland Wood opposed the proposed legislation. There was no need for it, he said.

He pointed out that there had been no town meetings, no study committee, no announcement of the bill. The people of Wilmington, he said, had just heard of the bill, and he exhibited a copy of the Town Crier, which had printed the bill.

He was asked if Mr. Cain's bill should be put on the ballot.

Wood said that this would be right - to let the people decide. 'The act you are amending' let it go back to the people on the ballot!

Wood said that it had already been on the ballot twice, and the last time the change had been proposed and was defeated two to one. Where is there better evidence? he asked.

Where is Mr. Black? Where is Mr. Brooks? Wood asked. People with such a dislike should be in here today! Where are they?

Michalson

Robert B Michalson spoke briefly. He was in opposition to the bill, in the manner in which it was presented, he said.

DeFelice

Former Selectman Nicholas De Felice dismissed many of the previous arguments as 'personality issues' on the part of his fellow townsmen. He began to talk about the need for mechanization and modernization in the assessing department of the town.

Chairman Quinn interrupted to ask Mr De Felice what he was talking about.

De Felice said he was talking about why the Principal Assessor was fired.

The present Town Manager, De Felice said, has done his job in spite of the Selectmen.

He spoke of the qualifications of a town manager, as outlined in the charter.

The President of the United States, he said, could not qualify to be Town Manager of Wilmington because he did not have the proper professional qualifications and background.

De Felice said that the Town Manager could be fired by the Selectmen 'any of the 52 Mondays in the year'. His only appeal would be to the board that fired him!

De Felice was asked why the Selectmen did not fire the Town Manager.

'Because they don't have the guts to fire the Town Manager is no reason to say that the Town Manager act is no good, De Felice said

Bender

Selectman Lloyd Bender opened his remarks by saying that there had been several misstatements of fact.

Referring to the statements by McGlue, Bender reported that last year in the Town of Wilmington, 68.6% of the voters turned out for election.

The Town Manager had to act unilaterally, Bender stated, because he has had no direction from the board.

The Board of Selectmen, he said, is supposed to set policy, and is not supposed to be just looking over the Town Manager's shoulder. 'I was opposed to the present Town Manager. It is not the motives, but the methods which was my primary objection. I have made many attempts to work with him, without a great deal of success.'

The Board of Selectmen, Bender stated, have allowed the situation to deteriorate to the point where the Town Manager had to act, sometimes unwisely.

'I suggested to the Board of Selectmen that if the charter is so poor, than it is incumbent upon the board to appoint a study committee, to examine, discuss, strengthen and perhaps define the areas which seem to be in dispute.'

Bender's objections to the bill was the method of presentation. He told the committee that 'the charter belongs to the people of Wilmington, and they should be the ones to judge'.

Melzar

Harold Melzar, Chairman of the Board of Water Commissioners, former Selectman and former Town Manager spoke briefly and to the point.

He was against the change, he said. In his experience the town had a very good charter.

Barry

Richard Barry, Chairman of the Finance Committee, was the last to speak, and that from the sidelines. He informed the chairman that the Wilmington Finance Committee was unanimous in its opposition to the bill.

The Bureau approved the charter on January 19 and the organizational meeting was held at the American Legion Hall, Wilmington, on Feb. 3rd, at 8 pm.

Earl R. Erikson, Field Representative of Mass. Credit Union International Assn., with the assistance of Examiner Cappaculli conducted both the organizational and Board of Directors meeting. The policies of the Credit Union were planned at the directors meeting.

The officials, who will serve until January 1966, elected are Charles Duffy Jr. - President, Leonard Gagnon - Treasurer, John Crisafulli - vice President, Joseph Devereau - Ass't. Treasurer, and Marion Murphy - Secretary.

School Accidents

Larry Cushing, Director of Recreation, in a report to the School Committee last week, said that the accident rate in the Wilmington Schools averaged 16 per 1,000 students within a 1 year period.

The report, covering the period between September and December 1964, noted that the greatest number of accidents, in the elementary schools occurred at the Glen Road School, which had a total of 7; at the North Intermediate 4; and at the High School, 19.

The fifth grade accident rate was the largest in the elementary schools and the tenth grade at the high school had the greatest number occurring in athletics and gym.

A comparison showed a total of 39 accidents and 80 plus days lost during this period against 31 accidents and 77 plus days lost in the 1963 period.

The formal report was based only on accidents that might require further medical attention or a case where a child would be sent home from school.

BALLOU TRAILED

William J. Homer, 37, of 3 Arlington Road Extension, in Burlington.

National Poly Pitcher

The man who was kidnapped and robbed, allegedly by the trio, according to the Burlington police, is William Homer of 3 Arlington Road Extension, in Burlington, an employee of the McSheffrey Liquor Store in North Woburn, and the star pitcher on the National Polychemicals Baseball team of Wilmington.

He told the Burlington police he was trailed home by three men in a car, from his place of work, after he had closed it up at 11 pm.

One of the men was able to get in his car, at the driveway of his home. He held a gun to the back of Homer's head, and forced him to drive to a lonely place, where Homer was relieved of his wallet, which contained $22 and a few lodge and credit cards.

After Homer was released he went to the nearest home, where he was able to call the Burlington police.

Burlington broadcast an alarm at 11:15 pm for one man, in a car. Five minutes later a second broadcast said that there were three armed men, in a black and white Chevrolet.

One Man Cruiser

Sergeant George Shepard of the Wilmington Police, at police headquarters, heard the alarm, and ordered disposition of the Wilmington police cruisers so as to best intercept the car, if it entered this town.

Officer Ballou was ordered to proceed to the North Woburn line at Main Street, and establish a watch there, while other cruisers were sent to other vantage points.

Ballou, as he drove to his post, met a black and white Chevrolet while near the J W Greer plant, on Main Street. There were two men in the car.

Ballou spun the cruiser around and started following. The car had not been travelling at an excessive speed, and was noticed to slow down to about 25 miles an hour.

Ballou did not care to try an arrest of three men, said to be armed, while alone in the cruiser.

He followed the Chevrolet, mean while continually broadcasting an alarm with the police cruiser radio.

As the Chevrolet approached Wilmington Square it had to slow down, or go through a red light. Had Ballou had another officer with him, he says, he would have made an arrest at that time.

He observed, at this time, and for the first time, that there was a third person in the car he was following. A young man got up from the back seat, and looked out the rear window at Ballou. The car proceeded north on Main Street, with Ballou following. At Shawshen Ave it slowed down, but then resumed speed and went on towards Tewksbury.

In Tewksbury the car drove around the Oaks Restaurant, with Ballou still following in the police cruiser. It turned up onto Shawshen Street, heading for Route 93. Meanwhile Ballou's calls were having their effect.

Sgt. Shepard had notified the Tewksbury Police, and in their station Patrolman Bradnick, who was in charge, was directing the Tewksbury cruisers to Shawshen Street.

(SEAL) Case No. 44376 Misc. In Equity
To Fernand J. Carrier and Rosemary Carrier, of Wilmington, Middlesex County, and said Commonwealth; and to all persons entitled to the benefit of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940 as amended: Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank, of Arlington, Middlesex County, and said Commonwealth, claiming to be the holder of a mortgage covering real property in Wilmington, Shawshen Avenue, given by Fernand J. Carrier and Rosemary Carrier, to the plaintiff, dated September 12, 1963 and recorded with Middlesex North Deeds, Book 1617, Page 116, has been filed with said court a bill in equity for authority to foreclose said mortgage in the manner following: by entry and possession and exercise of power of sale.

If you are entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940 as amended and you object to such foreclosure you or your attorney should file a written appearance and answer in said court at Boston on or before the fifteenth day of March 1965, or you may be forever barred from claiming that such foreclosure is invalid under said act.

Witness, JOHN E. FENTON, Esquire, Judge of said Court this fourth day of February 1965.

MARGARET M. DALY,
Recorder.

F 11

Two Wilmington cruisers and two Tewksbury cruisers converged on the black and white Chevrolet at a point about one mile from Main Street, on Shawshen Street. Arriving at the same time was the private car of Wilmington's Police Chief, Paul J. Lynch.

Mr. Lynch had gone to Lowell with his father in law, Charles Baldwin, and Atty David Elfman, to watch the amateur fights, and had heard the radio broadcasts as he was returning home.

He arrived just in time to witness the capture.

At the time of the capture, which was less than half an hour from the time of the alleged crime Officer Peter Hanson of Tewksbury noticed that Walter Downing, who was in the back seat, was trying to hide a pistol, under the seat cushions.

The pistol, a 32 caliber automatic, was taken by the police. On the seat beside Downing the police found a wallet, with $22 in it, and the cards and other property of Mr. Homer.

Identified by Victim

The three men were brought to the Tewksbury Police Station, where Chief John Sullivan took charge. Homer was brought to the Tewksbury Police Station in a Burlington Police Cruiser, and, the police say, he positively identified the three men as the bandits who had robbed him.
